

Appendix B: List of respondents

Responses were received from the following organisations and individuals.

Respondents who asked for their responses not to be published are indicated with *. The published response is an automatic extract from our online system so formats vary but should reflect the response made. Where respondents provided their comments in a way other than via the online system (for example by email) these have been entered by ONS to try and reflect the views expressed.

No organisation or affiliation is provided where respondents have chosen to respond as individuals. Addresses are excluded throughout. There were several anonymous individual responses.
